Excerpt: .to our cottage stealing near. s r Arm, arm, my friends, (I said) but scarce the sound Escap d my lips, the foes our cot surround: Boldly approach d our flame-devoted thatch, And vengeful planted there, the lighted match. High in the air the element arose, And glaring flash d upon our num rous foes: The dusky tinge that o er their features stray d, Fierce untam d, ruffian violence display d. We rose in haste, and to the entrance flew, -- And as from instinct, each his weapon drew;--fc Then sallied forth--nor loiter d then the clash Of brands that render d back the fiery flash, Reflected from the pile--our blazing sun, That still gleam d forth, till they began to run.-- Fearful of ambush we pursued not far, And other cares amid the midnight war Engross d our thoughts; for nought was...
