Excerpt: . . . prevent any Undertaking of theirs. What reason had the French for thinking so about the English They pretend to have an undoubted Right to the River from a Discovery made by one La Salle 60 years ago; and the Rise of this Expedition is to prevent any settling on the River or Waters of it as they heard of some Families moving out in order thereto. They also told how many forts there were between Lake Erie and Montreal and how long it would take to get to Montreal. The next day Washington writes, Rained excessively all Day. What effect upon traveling Joncaire, the French officer, now heard that Half-King was with Washington. What do you think he would do Send for Half-King. Why do you suppose Washington did not bring the Indians to the French officer I knew he was Interpreter and a...
