Not illustrated. 1858 Excerpt: . 00 The petitioner has repeatedly applied to Congress for relief. He states in his petition the action which has been had thereon in Congress. He has made a voluntary assignment of his claim to his son-in-law, William H. Edes, and his grandson, James R. Dunn. The petitioner does not pretend that he ever made application to the Navy Department for the settlement of his claim. He did not present it to Congress till the 1st session of the 18th Congress. On the 25th day of February, A. D. 1824, the Committee of Claims in the House of Representatives made a report against the claim. The original papers then belonging to the case were withdrawn on the 11th day of January, A. D. 1827. It appears from the report previously made, that the petitioner stated that his loss took place six or eight days before the...
