Psychologist Alan Gregory is used to dealing with nightmares. But a brutal, shocking confession locks him into darkness and forces him to choose between saving himself and saving those who will otherwise end their days pleading for mercy at the hands of a vicious serial killer. What Alan can t see is that either choice might cost him his life. In riveting, explosive scenes that have become his hallmark, Stephen White delivers an unsettling and gripping story that penetrates to the heart of terror and transfixes listeners like no one else can.
