

The Exploding Population Bomb: Societies Under Stress: Corrective Strategies and Solutions (Paperback)

By Dr Frederic R Siegel

Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 202 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Global population in 2010 is 6.8 billion people. By 2010, the number of people on Earth is projected to be 9.5+ billion with growth mainly in less developed and developing nations. This book focusses on the fact that we are not meeting the water, food, shelter, healthcare, and other need of at least 1/3 of today's population and how this may be achievable now and for significantly larger populations in a two-generation future. Social, economic, environmental, and political stress will build up for governments, ecosystems, and existing populations as competition surges for people's basic needs and natural resources that fuel national economies. This book discusses practices that work to slow and stem population growth and alleviate stress by providing citizens with personal security, education, employment, and human and property rights. Likewise, it evaluates methodologies and technologies, some applicable now and others that are in development that can serve to diminish water and food deficiencies where they are acute, mainly in Africa, Asia, the Middle East, and Latin America. Moreover, the book analyzes how adaptation to changing conditions and...
