CHAPTER I WAK ADMINISTRATION AND SERVICE The two most important links between the various States are the permanent or common army, and the need of presenting a united front in regard to foreign affairs. The Imperial and Royal Army, henceforward called the permanent army, belongs to all the States. But there are besides : --The Austrian Landwehr and Landsturm; the Hungarian Landwehr and Landsturm; the local forces of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Emperor-King is the Commander-in-Chief of all the forces, common or local, and he acts through--the common Minister of War; the Austrian Minister of National Defence; the Hungarian Minister of War. The two latter are concerned with the Landwehr and Landsturm, and recruiting of their sections, and are responsible to their National Chambers. The former is a Government Minister of the empire. He acts through the War Ministry, which is composed of sixteen...
